JULIA ADVISING THAT SHE IS BEING HARASSED BY SOME INDIVIDUALS AT CASEY'S. THEY HAVE ALREADY LEFT. SHE WANTS TO COME IN AND SPEAK TO AN OFFICER.

I, Officer Sines, spoke with Julia Eickmeier. She advised me that she was at Casey's General Store getting gas. She was approached by Joseph, Mary and Kevin Kramer. She advised that Kevin is the father of her daughter and Joseph and Mary are the grand parents. Joseph said "Hi Julia". Eickmeier advised she asked them not to come near her and to leave her alone. They continued to approach her vehicle and knocked at the window to wave to her daughter. She advised that this frightened her and "stressed her out". She advised that she does not feel like they should be able to approach her because Mary has a trespass warning against her. I explained to Eickmeier that there was very little I could do about this unless she had a valid order of protection. I explained that someone saying hello and then waiving at their daughter/ grand child is not aggressive or violent behavior. Eickmeier advised that she has a long history of having problems with the family. I advised Eickmeier that I would document the incident.
